

A Conference for Current and Future Teachers

Teaching Math and Making it Count!

Saturday, November 17, 2018

8:30 a.m. – 12:15 p.m.

(Registration is from 8:00-8:30am)

El Camino College, Torrance, CA

Please mark your calendar for our fall conference at El Camino College. Attendees will be able to choose two (90 minute) workshops which focus on teaching math at the preschool and elementary levels. Come learn how to provide supportive and engaging math curriculum for young children, and advocate for a more meaningful approach to math. The event will conclude with raffle prizes and professional growth certificates. Possible presentation topics will include the following:

- Drumming up some Math
- Constructing, Engineering, & Building Bridges
- Cooking and Measuring with Young Children
- Making Connections to Mathematics in a Waldorf Classroom
- Add it up: Teaching Mathematics in a Meaningful Way in Primary Classrooms
- Math Rocks! Counting, Sorting, Matching & Graphing rocks and other simple items
- Catching the Beat –Finding the heart of math through music
- Buttons Come and Buttons Go: Math with Pete the Cat (and other books you can count on)
