

Chat Notes: ECE CoP on 28 September 20

- 00:51:10 Peggy Dodge: College of Marin lab school is open. Two classrooms of 6 children each with two teachers. Still not sure if I will be able to place student teachers there in the Spring
- 00:51:28 Nadiyah Taylor : the lab at Las Positas opened in mid September. it's going well in terms of the children. We are working to get back to having student observations
- 00:51:42 Rachel Johnson: We are closed thru the spring
- 00:51:42 Angela Lucero: Can you share where you are getting your observation videos.
- 00:52:09 Cathi Miller (she/her) Santa Monica College: SMC is virtual through Spring
- 00:52:14 Rachel Johnson: <https://www.ecefacultycollective.com/>
- 00:52:21 Rachel Johnson: I am using videos in the video libraries from here
- 00:52:34 Rachel Johnson: and from videos we had from previous semesters.
- 00:52:43 Kathleen White: Rachel's website above has access to the videos and canvas shell info..
- 00:52:58 Maria Adams: We need move videos of children with special needs/disabilities.
- 00:53:06 Megan Pronovost: Fresno State is virtual until Spring and students will not be allowed in the lab school
- 00:53:08 Rachel Johnson: <https://www.ecefacultycollective.com/>
- 00:53:21 Rachel Johnson: There is a video resource from ACCESS for ECE and they have special needs videos
- 00:53:39 Kathleen White: CCSF will most likely be all virtual in the Spring... lab schools are not yet open..date of opening unknown..
- 00:54:49 Nadiyah Taylor : the whiteboard is a great idea. I don't have access to something like right now but have been using the whiteboard feature in Zoom
- 00:55:35 Michelle St Germaine: I cant hear lila
- 00:55:35 Deanna Hall: Nadiyah, I haven't used the whiteboard feature in Zoom but have been curious about how it works. How has it been for you?
- 00:55:52 Laurie A Campbell: Nadiyah - I have used that feature in zoom too, but enjoy the actual writing. My other thought was to get those giant post it pages to use
- 00:56:10 Cathi Miller (she/her) Santa Monica College: Has anyone had issues with privacy on Zoom classes? Parents of college students eavesdropping?
- 00:56:24 Nadiyah Taylor : I would agree with comment from Laura'
- 00:56:28 Melissa Ysais: Cathi, YES
- 00:56:41 Melissa Ysais: and spouses

00:56:46 Nadiyah Taylor : it's not quite as dynamic as real time writing on the board

00:56:46 Birgit Monks: We have a waiting room and a password

00:57:18 Cathi Miller (she/her) Santa Monica College: Even so, if someone else is in the room with the student, they can hear what's being said.

00:57:44 Cathi Miller (she/her) Santa Monica College: Also, I have a student who is stuck at home with an abusive husband. She used to come to class and we'd talk honestly, but now we can't.

00:57:46 Lisa Fuller: I totally eavesdropped when my son was taking his classes - he's 21 and attending WSU, Kansas. I appreciated being able to listen to the lectures with him and then follow up and discuss what he was learning

00:57:51 Kathleen White: Privacy is an issue with everyone...children hearing adult content, parents listening to college and dual-enrollment students, faculty hearing background conversations and seeing more than imagined!!

00:57:52 Deanna Hall: My husband is also a teacher (high school English). He decided to invest in an actual Whiteboard (4 x 8 foot) and put on the wall in his study. Best $100 investment for him.

00:58:08 Deanna Hall: Agreed Kathleen.

00:58:51 Maria Adams: I have a white board too, my college actually paid for it.

00:58:52 Angela Lucero: Thank You Rachel. That will help.

00:58:56 Cathi Miller (she/her) Santa Monica College: I understand that privacy is an issue with everyone; I'm describing FERPA concerns as the technology is far ahead of the legislations.

00:59:17 Lila Snow:when students are having traumatic experiences online, like coming in crying, like being yelled at, I try to not ignore it. sometimes the student wants to be left alone but more often they want and are relieved by the support.

00:59:39 Cathi Miller (she/her) Santa Monica College: Lila, this sounds like a good topic for us to discuss.

00:59:49 Kathleen White: Agreed..FERPA and this virtual co-learning environment are not aligned...

00:59:52 Lila Snow:sorry for those who could not hear me. significant computer issues this week.

01:00:39 Cathi Miller (she/her) Santa Monica College: Great idea, Wendy! I'm going to copy this.

01:00:42 Jean Gallagher-Heil: Breakout rooms are also a real help for students during synchronous class time since we all get to move away from the screen of so many and into a smaller group where they get to share and even laugh (hopefully).

01:00:46 Rachel Johnson: Lila and Cathi...do we need to have a coffee chat about this?

01:01:06 Cathi Miller (she/her) Santa Monica College: I think that's a great idea, Rachel. Supporting students virtually is a whole new ballgame.

01:01:11 Kathleen White: Take a look at the Children's Internet Safety act... were difficult to comply with the current "mixed use" environments..

01:01:11 Laurie A Campbell: As students are entering I started playing music softly this week. I also asked them to enter into the chat box a rating of 1-5 on how they were feeling emotionally and then one sentence to explain why. Most rated themselves at a 2 or 3, and stated being tired and feeling overwhelmed as the reasons. It was nice to give them a time to express this.

01:01:21 Birgit Monks: Students love breakout rooms

01:01:27 Lila Snow:good idea Cathi and Rachel

01:01:35 Nadiyah Taylor : I think our union is currently getting guidance on FERPA and video.

01:01:47 Melissa Ysais: I play music before the start of all of my classes either f2f or online.

01:02:09 Wendy Ruiz: @Laurie I love having music during our zooms. And using the rating scale to check in 01:02:10 Melissa Ysais: You can always find my class by listening for the music.

01:02:21 Cathi Miller (she/her) Santa Monica College: Melissa, do you have a playlist?

01:02:49 Cathi Miller (she/her) Santa Monica College: My PhD class was talking about FERPA and Zoom. There is a lot to think about.

01:02:50 Elmida Baghdaserians: Each of us has been using strategies to support our students

01:03:04 Melissa Ysais: Nope....it is either random or I ask the students what they would like to hear. I play 50's, 60's,70's , Broadway, etc

01:03:16 Elmida Baghdaserians: perhaps we can start a padlet to share our strategies

01:03:30 Elmida Baghdaserians: we can share the wealth

01:03:37 Birgit Monks: Great idea, thank you

01:04:15 Cathi Miller (she/her) Santa Monica College: I encourage students to turn on their camera when we break into small groups. I don't require it. Most of them agree.

01:04:47 Melissa Ysais: But most have smart phones

01:04:53 Cathi Miller (she/her) Santa Monica College: @ Melissa, yes

01:04:58 Elmida Baghdaserians: great point Toni

01:05:21 Wendy Ruiz: Fun Gina :)

- 01:05:33 Cathi Miller (she/her) Santa Monica College: You can generate a Zoom report that lists how long each student was on class.
- 01:05:33 Trish Doelitzsch: I ask questions with simple answers throughout the lecture, asking students to put into the chat box. They cannot miss more than 2 “quick answers”, in order to get full participation
- 01:05:34 Maria Adams: Still an equity issue, some students don't have smart phones
- 01:05:49 Trish Doelitzsch: “Quick answers” happen randomly throughout the lecture
- 01:09:01 Peggy Dodge: What do they think is broken about mentor program now?
- 01:10:32 Rachel Johnson: <https://padlet.com/rajohnson25/ns89hbrqc2sfsdb9>
- 01:10:44 Rachel Johnson: Here is a padlet board for everyone to start posting and brainstorming
- 01:12:44 Cathi Miller (she/her) Santa Monica College: Thanks, Rachel!
- 01:14:21 Oona Fontanella-Nothom: Sorry, I've got another meeting starting in a few.... Thanks for the great discussion and information today.
- 01:14:25 Peggy Dodge: Their priorities are fine but seem to have been developed out of the context of today's programs
- 01:15:24 Toni Isaacs: Thanks Everyone! I have to go to another meeting!
- 01:15:34 Kellie Barnett: Thank you so much!!
- 01:16:11 Nadiyah Taylor : thank you for your advocacy!
- 01:20:44 Melissa Ysais: I have students in my zoom office hours waiting room....early birds....I need to go....sorry

Padlet board for brainstorming

01:31:12 Kellie Barnett: Wonderful video

01:31:38 monica juarez: Can you add the teach for the bay registration link?

01:32:10 Jacqueline Williams: will there be certificates of attendance

01:32:26 monica juarez: Found it above!

01:33:27 Kathleen White: www.forthethebay.com

01:33:41 Kathleen White: www.teachforthebay.com ..sorry!!

01:33:46 Lea Martinez: www.teachforthebay.com

01:34:12 Lea Martinez: www.teachlarc.org

01:34:19 Laurie A Campbell: On the teach for the bay website, how do we register for the conference? I can't find that

01:34:30 Kathleen White: Thank you also to Lea for her skills and expertise and sharing with NORCAL!

01:34:44 A Leon: Absolutely!!

01:34:45 gina peterson: YES YES YES video library is a MUST!!!

01:34:58 Angela Lucero: Yes, that would be great!

01:35:10 Lisa Fuller: Perhaps tie in with the CAP courses that already have Canvas shells for OERs

01:35:14 Dana Van Sinden: Yes! All the various video libraries in one place would be great!

01:35:17 Nadiyah Taylor : yes to all ideas!

01:35:22 Kellie Barnett: Yes I would love a Canvas Shell Resources

01:35:26 Maria Adams: Yes, we need videos :)

01:35:26 Lea Martinez: Recordings for both BAY and LA event will be in our websites.

01:35:30 Elmida Baghdaserians: which conference needed presenters ?

01:35:39 Elmida Baghdaserians: deadline tonight ?

01:36:23 A Leon: 0-5 in canvas shell would be awesome!

01:36:36 Lea Martinez: That would be the LA event. Please e-mail me at lmartinez@riohondo.edu I can forward the guidelines and workshop submission for to you.

01:36:57 Lea Martinez: Sorry, "to you"

01:37:13 Lea Martinez: @Elmida

01:37:22 Kathleen White: www.teachforthebay.com - registration is by workshop... each workshop has it's own reg.

01:37:35 Joy Foster: turn the pages to the workshop...then click the blue button

01:38:06 Jean Gallagher-Heil: Yes, high quality 0-5 videos are needed...

01:38:42 Joy Foster: I love finding videos on the same child.

01:38:56 Jodi Morinaka: what about video walk throughs of open centers that could be used for observations of environments. There would be no need for children to be present just being able to see environment set ups.

01:39:07 Rachel Johnson: Build the video library in with the canvas CAP classes

01:39:08 Kathleen White: LA needs presenters... due today...

01:39:36 Rachel Johnson: Videos of classrooms with no commentary

01:39:39 Kathleen White: SF Bay Region Conference starts Monday.. too late to present..but please join in!!!

01:40:40 Wendy Ruiz: I am working on creating videos with my program, including raw footage without commentary. I will be happy to share them

01:40:47 Lisa Fuller: Cerro Coso lab school teachers are open to be interviewed and videoed - we are getting ready for Swivl, but it hasn't arrived yet.

- 01:41:04 monica juarez: When is the next meeting?
- 01:41:49 Deanna Hall: Permissions and confidentiality issues?
- 01:41:59 Nadiyah Taylor : I think the director at my college would be willing too. Her email is amlopez@laspositascollege.edu
- 01:42:44 Kathy Kotowski: Thank you Wendy and Lisa!
- 01:42:47 Angela Lucero: Thank You great resources.
- 01:42:52 Ida Cross: Thanks everyone! :)
- 01:42:53 Jodi Morinaka: thank you
- 01:42:57 Maria Adams: Thank you!
- 01:43:00 Trish Doelitzsch: Thank you!
- 01:43:02 Joy Foster: Thankyou!
- 01:43:05 Dana Van Sinden: Thank you for organizing!
- 01:43:05 Claire Koukoutsakis: Thank you for all of work to support all of us and encouraging collaboration
