- 12:06:38 From Marianne Smith : I'd also be interested in meeting with Cynthia
- 12:08:51 From Deanna Hall : Where your program is housed also makes a difference. If you are in CE vs. in another division.
- 12:09:21 From Renee Marshall : TPP Happy Hour (with Cynthia!) - We are looking at 12/21 or 12/23 at 5 pm. Will email everyone once it is confirmed.
- 12:10:12 From Kathleen White : I did a two page powerpoint for this meeting and a new video clip if we have time now?
- 12:10:20 From Renee Marshall : Of course Kathleen
- 12:11:05 From Bobby Becka : Megan, be Proud to be a Party Crasher!!
- 12:11:20 From Renee Marshall : Seriously!
- 12:13:01 From Bobby Becka : When requesting funds from Perkins for next year, the dean at EICo that heads this up told us:

As it relates specifically to Early Childhood Education, the program is not connected to jobs that produce a median salary expected to meet living wage. The Chancellor's office defines living wage in our area (Los Angeles County) as $31,767. Based on data from ESMI and CA EDD (which is reflected in the dashboard), Early Childhood Education is connected to occupations with a median salary of $22,523 (well below living wage).
- 12:13:05 From Deanna Hall : When collecting wage data, LMI is very limited.
- 12:19:07 From Deanna Hall : Everyone should have access to this information through their college.
- 12:19:11 From Gina Peterson : WOWOWOWOW Kathleen that is EXCELLENT info :)
- 12:22:01 From Renee Marshall : LA still got 343K!!
- 12:22:31 From Renee Marshall : Shannon- did Central allocate SWP funding for teacher prep?
- 12:22:47 From Shannon Turmon : I don't think so.
- 12:22:56 From Renee Marshall : Bummer
- 12:23:05 From Deanna Hall : Look for CTE Outcomes Survey (CTEOS) Results.

12:23:10 From Shannon Turmon : I am running 10 hours a month on CTE funds but I am told that will run out soon.

12:23:46 From Bobby Becka : This is the link to the new 2021-24 LA Regional Plan:

12:24:08 From Shannon Turmon : I am a department of 1 and I have a full-time 50% split role. I teach Education and Guidance Studies full-time.

12:26:00 From Kim Barker : I love the bridging the gap component so much! connecting with all educators.

12:27:53 From Deanna Hall : The employer partner aspect can be "tricky" if you can't show a promise of X# of jobs your students will be able to walk into.

12:29:46 From Kim Barker : Nice!

12:30:18 From Gina Peterson : Inspirational :)

12:30:25 From Kim Barker : I have to leave. Thank you everyone. Enjoy your break. It is really nice to see you.

12:30:46 From Lea Martinez : Thank you, K. You always bring good info. and great stuff that I'd like to copy. lol

12:30:57 From Megan Kaplinsky : Going back to targeting applications to address TPP needs and potential questions of eligibility (as it's not in the 21-24 LA Regional Plan, for example, as a priority or emerging sector)... What is a good way to frame it?

12:31:13 From Renee Marshall : I LOVE that idea Shannon!

12:31:15 From Megan Kaplinsky : This is for either local SWP or Perkins V

12:31:36 From Renee Marshall : Megan- we will come back to this after Kath

The Chancellor's office defines living wage in our area (Los Angeles County) as $31,767. - 12:39:55 From Kathleen White : Link to the powerpoint!! Bye!!
- 12:40:04 From Deanna Hall : Access to SWP funds will also depend on how your college has decided to invest that money in general. For example, if SWP $ is largely tied up in salary, then ...
- 12:41:32 From Renee Marshall : Would it benefit us if we start a document where we track other data sources (specific to TPP)?
- 12:41:33 From Bobby Becka : Thank you Steve, for using the word “nonsense”. Perfect! :D

- 12:42:57 From Megan Kaplinsky : So, in addition to outdated LMI, use EMSI and... ?

- 12:43:28 From Lea Martinez : @Renee, yes, we need to compile our own data.

13:08:49 From Megan Kaplinsky : Yeesss!

13:16:26 From Megan Kaplinsky : I think various leads of CCCTPP, CoPs, ACCCTEP, etc. should do the master calendar meeting and schedule according to need after clarifying shared goals/objectives and then specialties, etc.
