- 00:08:53 Veronica Allen: Hello- Veronica Allen (LAMC)
- 00:08:57 Oona Fontanella-Nothom: Thanks, Renee!
- 00:09:43 Shannon Turmon: <https://schools.covid19.ca.gov/>
- 00:13:13 mvillasa: Do this mean there might also be more nurses on campus as it used to be once upon a time?
- 00:13:29 Renee Marshall: I wish, but I do not believe so
- 00:13:39 Valerie Ambrose: Do you think there will be vaccination requirements for observers once they allow observations again?
- 00:13:42 mvillasa: sigh
- 00:17:24 Peggy Dodge: I have told my students that I won't teach to black screens. They must put either a photo, avatar, or other image that represents them for me to see instead of black box.
- 00:17:58 Lea Martinez: Those were the same thoughts I have Renee.

- 00:18:18 Valerie Ambrose: Not all computers or internet connections will allow video, unfortunately. My computer is too old and won't do backgrounds, so students get to see my exercise bike.
- 00:18:27 Kim Barker: Equity is so important to support. Some of our students are on phones, living in their car or doing all they can do to make sure they are keeping their head above water.
- 00:18:40 Peggy Dodge: Citizenship status is also a concern for many. And, internet connectivity can be impacted by all the videos on
- 00:19:10 Dr. Alma Cortes (she/her/ella): I do the same Renee. The equity issues are very difficult for students to navigate and manage. i agree with Kim.
- 00:19:18 Kim Barker: Maybe they don't have a closet.
- 00:19:21 Lea Martinez: @Valerie so true. My PC is old so I can't have a background at home.
- 00:20:13 Oona Fontanella-Nothom: It is hard to teach to people with their video off... but I've found that it is more that it makes me uncomfortable and so I recognize it is a me issue, and not to blame students. I try to work to give students a reason to turn their video — activities, small group work, etc.
- 00:20:17 Renee Marshall: Great points everyone
- 00:21:09 mvillasa: Zoom highlights the head and face, it is a close up and can be very intimidating for many students. When we are in a class we see the whole person, seeing only the head is awful for shy and self conscious students
- 00:21:09 Becky Roth: I found, that when they are in smaller groups (breakout rooms), they tend to turn on their camera. Then when we come back together, more students have their camera on. I have started using the breakout rooms earlier in the class:)
- 00:21:17 Dr. Alma Cortes (she/her/ella): I taught mindfulness and let them turn off screens and then invited students to come back and show themselves for certain conversations so we can get to know one another. It is not perfect but it made some feel ok with sharing more.
- 00:21:31 Kim Barker: Yes, Shannon! Multiple families in one home does not leave for much privacy or option. If I can get them to talk, I am ahead of the game.
- 00:21:32 Jennifer Kraemer: Great strategy!
- 00:21:33 LWilson@zerotothree.org: Renee xoxoxox
- 00:22:03 Becky Roth: Nice Alma! I use mindfulness at the beginning of every class:) It seems to help too.
- 00:22:16 Renee Marshall: Hi Lisa!!!!

00:22:54 Becky Roth: I have heard that it might work like the flu, either the shot or sign a waiver:)

00:24:54 Lea Martinez: I was afraid of that. It will be a problem with our virtual mentoring.

00:25:06 Becky Roth: Our mentors are working with students over zoom on lesson plan development, circle time and other curriculum strategies and professional portfolio development. It's not perfect but it is going to work for us! I am so excited to have the mentors 1 more semester:)

00:28:08 Peggy Dodge: I was allowed to place one student in each pod of our lab school. Others are doing fieldwork at their workplace. Still others are doing virtual fieldwork. Each virtual student spends 2 hours every other week with me in our observation room watching the lab school in action

00:28:43 Kim Barker: That is great Shannon!!!

00:28:52 Becky Roth: Nice!! We have observation rooms and cameras, but our president won't allow students access yet:(

00:29:08 Jen Dieleman: I have been using the Teaching Channel to help with observations

00:30:06 Jennifer Kraemer: How does one get access to the Teaching Channel?

00:30:12 Lea Martinez: Good idea!

00:30:32 Valerie Ambrose: I've been using Teaching Channel too. You email them and they'll send you an instructor link.

00:31:18 Valerie Ambrose: $35 per student if you use it in class. I use an OER so I think it's been relatively affordable.

00:31:42 Jennifer Kraemer: Awesome, thanks!

00:33:15 Renee Marshall: ECE Academic Senate Resolution:
<https://asccc.org/resolutions/critical-support-early-childhood-educationchild-development-programs>

00:33:35 Renee Marshall: Kathleen- I would love to be involved!

00:34:39 Kim Barker: Fantastic Kathleen! I would too!

00:35:02 Peggy Dodge: I personally am opposed to just embracing this TK expansion in the public school sector. I will need to see the resolution for ASCCC to know if I can support it

00:36:11 Renee Marshall: Apprenticeships flyer attached above

00:38:39 Kathleen White: I will send to you Peggy... I agree there are issues related to TK expansion and the provision of quality classrooms for our young 4 years olds... esp. related to ratios and staffing, class size... etc...

00:38:43 Nance Nunes-Gill - Professional: We haven't determined what we will be doing in the fall at this time. I've heard of a few colleges that they are going to be remote except for hard to transition labs or some are going to be hybrid.

00:38:48 Nance Nunes-Gill - Professional: hybrid.

00:38:59 Naomi Castro: We are still using videos for Spring as long as CSU is open to it I would prefer using videos in the Fall as well.

00:39:33 Naomi Castro: *sorry - videos for fieldwork, my EDU classes are online for spring and fall

00:39:50 Oona Fontanella-Nothom: What I've heard at my campus is that they are only allowing 350 sections of courses on campus in the fall. That's only about 7-10% of all sections taught

00:40:01 Annie White: We are told in the fall we will be 75% face to face (in person) and 25% online.

00:40:05 Becky Roth: We use videos too:)

00:40:18 Rosenfeld, Kimberly: Cerritos is 100% online in the fall

00:40:31 Valerie Ambrose: We aren't sure. Probably online. I'm hoping that CSUs are still open to videos in fall, since I think it's going to be difficult to do placements responsibly. (They're saying 40-50% face-to-face, but I'm not confident that this is realistic.)

00:40:36 Rosenfeld, Kimberly: Can you put these links in the chat?

00:40:37 Jusdafax Maam: We are working on a partnership with LAUSD through Step-Up Tutoring program -- I am at Mount San Antonio College

00:40:38 Renee Marshall: Can others share their fall plan if they have it?

00:40:40 Jennifer Kraemer: Folsom Lake College (Los Rios Community College District) is going remote in Fall 2021. Our DE Addendums have been renewed for fall. We do not have a CDC.

00:41:03 Becky Roth: Taft College hasn't decided yet or hasn't informed faculty of the decision.

00:42:49 Valerie Ambrose: Hover over your picture in Zoom, when you see the 3 dots, click on those, go to Rename.

00:42:53 Jen Dieleman: Our Private Schools do not have any ELL programs or Sped classes so I have concerns about my students not seeing the right content

00:48:09 Naomi Castro: I totally want a flying robot

00:48:41 Renee Marshall: Me too Naomi!

00:48:54 Leticia Rojas (she/her/hers): Thank you for saying that Bill.

- 00:49:11 Kathleen White: Me too Naomi! Flying robot- wow!! Then a drone can go pick up homework and delivery supplies too!!
- 00:50:10 Leticia Rojas (she/her/hers): Plans for fall: PCC hasn't stated official policy for fall semester. In terms of placing students, all depends on local districts and their willingness to have our students
- 00:51:48 Naomi Castro: Santa Monica College - 10 stories of students during covid (plus what they wish teachers knew) and strategies to support:
<https://drive.google.com/file/d/1D-Qkc1-1Jg54EOXgKGSzrGKTfBqmvVJi/view?usp=sharing>
- 00:51:52 Becky Roth: So true!! The first week introductions included sharing the deaths of family members and lots of tears:(. It's so hard to jump to a discussion on the syllabus and lab work when a student just shared that she lost her father to Covid. Ugh:(
- 00:52:15 Peggy Dodge: I have purchased the SWIVL equipment. It doesn't fly but it does follow the person wearing the tracker (within some limitations). It hasn't come yet so the jury is still out on how it works for us.
- 00:52:25 Leticia Rojas (she/her/hers): Are there MOU templates/examples available in the share canvas?
- 00:52:37 Renee Marshall: Yes
- 00:52:44 Leticia Rojas (she/her/hers): Thank you!
- 00:52:48 Renee Marshall: You bet!
- 00:53:06 Renee Marshall: Whatever we can do to help! If you feel anything is missing in Canvas, let us know and we will look for it or create it.
- 00:53:59 Rosenfeld, Kimberly: Can you provide the reference to the Canvas Commons project again? Title and/or link.
- 00:55:00 Nance Nunes-Gill - Professional: Thank you everyone for the great information! I have another meeting at 4:00. Until next time.
- 00:55:16 Renee Marshall:

- 00:55:18 Jusdafax Maam: Are there conferences scheduled for the spring that might serve as fieldwork hours? (like the Teach LA Conference did in the fall).
- 00:55:19 Renee Marshall: Canvas Commons
- 00:55:36 Renee Marshall: Yes! But not until May
- 00:56:39 Lea Martinez: @ Jusdafax: I believe that's the one Renee mentioned in May.
- 00:56:50 Renee Marshall: Yes Doug- in May we will have one :)

00:57:03 LWilson@zerotothree.org: I have to leave ;(If you need help with any equity-related work check out C.A.R.E. <https://www.antiracism.org/>

00:57:05 Kim Barker: You are FANTASTIC Shannon! Thank you for doing this!

00:57:07 Lea Martinez: Is that you, Doug? Love it! Jusdafax

00:57:09 Jusdafax Maam: Ok..thank you..yes,I you did mention that

00:57:32 Jusdafax Maam: hahaha..Hi Lea..yes, it's me-- Doug

00:57:40 Kathleen White: Also Short Term SWP pathways - with an employer partner that lead to jobs..ECE, After-school, etc..

01:01:30 Dr. Kimberly Bligh: We have three levels of paraprofessional certificates with a fourth in the approval process and our local degree with these certs built in should be ready for next fall.

01:01:41 Dr. Kimberly Bligh: They start in early college...

01:01:44 Bill Vasey: Special Ed course will get you an interview almost everywhere

01:02:25 Renee Marshall: GREAT point Bill!

01:02:46 Kim Barker: Have to go for another meeting. Thank you so much!

01:02:55 Oona Fontanella-Nothom: Thanks, all! Off to the next meeting

01:03:17 Dr. Kimberly Bligh: One of our courses in the certificate program is teaching Special Populations so it covers all spectrums of learners!

01:03:25 Renee Marshall: If anyone wants to start a club- reach out!! Many of us are involved in student clubs and have started them/ran them effectively.

01:04:15 Jusdafax Maam: We had our Advisory Mtg. Feb 5-- I got approval for developing three new certificates with emphasis in Dual Language Learners, Special Education, and Cultural Competency (Mount San Antonio College)

01:05:06 Renee Marshall: We have a special scholarship in my town for (graduating) high school students that are going to be teachers. CA Credit Union has a scholarship right now open. Money/funding helps our students on their pathway.

01:05:18 Renee Marshall: CCCAOE

01:05:33 Kathleen White: Very inspiring Shannon! It takes time, but it is worth it!

01:06:13 Becky Roth: Our ECE club hosted a "drive through" where we handed out Taft College Professional Portfolios to our ECE majors and are planning to do it again in April. At that time, we will also provide a safe "treat" and a gift for ECE graduates. We haven't been as busy as other years, but we made it work. The students also agree that they wanted to use club as a way to support each other and relax during the meetings:) We do mindfulness, share struggles and strategies, and plan:)

01:06:18 Dr. Kimberly Bligh: Here are are current listings:
<https://bakersfield.elumenapp.com/catalog/2020-2021/education#mainContent>

01:07:18 Renee Marshall: Of course Lea!

01:07:19 Kathleen White: I wanted to mention that dual-enrollment students in our district can access zoom classrooms for younger students in the district!

01:07:35 Peggy Dodge: Sorry, gotta run
