01:04:30 Laura Martinez: For my community

01:04:31 Yadira Arellano: ❤️

01:04:35 Juliana Vasquez: my why is, because I want to make a difference and tell my story

01:04:36 Tulia Gonzalez: I want to make a difference.

01:04:45 Stephanie Alvarado: Its a combination that is centered around my daughter!

01:05:03 Andrea Rios: Be there for our kids who need us most

01:05:06 DaZhane Thomas: To see more teachers who have unseen physical disabilities

01:05:09 Oralia Kameny: because I want every child to feel loved and feel someone believes in him/her

01:05:10 mai ebbets: To be the teacher that I didn't have and help those that need the help. That is why I want to go into SPED.

01:05:10 JAMES RUANO: I want to help make a better generation

01:05:11 Alessandra Rey: My why is coming from all of my high school teachers that always were there for me

01:05:20 Deya : I had an amazing teacher and I come from a line of teachers

01:05:21 Julie Gomez: So that students have someone who looks, speaks and relates culturally to them. I never had that.

01:05:26 Sandy Pech: My why is my son, he is autistic and I believe everyone has the potential to be something great regardless of their obstacles.

01:05:31 Brenda Saldana: I want to make a difference and because I learned with my daughters that children are so important, that their education is so important!

01:05:43 Stephania Covarrubias: I want to put everything I learned from the teachers that made a difference in my life and use it to make a difference in other children's lives.

01:05:49 Viola Medina: I wanted to be an advocate for students that struggle education because an old teacher help me with my struggles

01:05:50 Erika Burciga: Help children's mind grow, inspire them to be better people in the future

- 01:05:57 Claudia Ramírez: To empower the next generation
- 01:06:05 Monique : I want to help the next generation.
- 01:06:07 Claudia Sanchez: Story,experience , the power of education to be transformative and restorative and a place of growth, which should be accessed by all.
- 01:06:19 Michelle Bugarin: to show diversity and form a human connection
- 01:06:25 Rosie Monterroso: I want to help my community because I want to make a difference.
- 01:06:31 Victorine Brown: My why is being HOH, my disability does not limit me
- 01:06:32 Gracia Diaz: To reach out to kids and also as well family to help them to lean in a fun and to be successful in future to make better place for themselves and others
- 01:06:36 Yesenia Martinez: My fascination with how children are influenced by so many things yet they still find the spark to be present. I want to make sure all students know they're worth something ♥
- 01:06:45 Stephanie Garcia: Make a difference in a dual language system
- 01:06:46 julie lopez: i want to learn how to teach english as a second language

<https://forms.gle/9RbhkmxBRimV1Q4n9>
- 01:07:01 Katelyn Raile: I want to go into teaching because I want to be an inspiration for students who have unseen physical disabilities who may be in mostly general education courses like I had been and need a teacher who understands their struggles and how they learn differently.
- 01:07:31 JAMES RUANO: shout out to representing men in the field
- 01:07:52 Stephania Covarrubias: I see in my own children how motivated they are when I teach them something new and it gives me the drive to want to continue teachers other children and keep getting those reactions of helping them learn.
- 01:08:18 Stephania Covarrubias: teaching*
- 01:08:28 Michelle Bugarin: yes!! live out our ancestors dreams !!
- 01:09:33 Stephania Covarrubias: yes building a connection is so important, it makes the children know they are cared for by their teachers and its not just a job for the educators but a bond.
- 01:09:39 Kayla Cannon: I love learning and growing. And I want to influence my future students to love learning and growing. I also want to show my students all the love and encourage love between our class family and school family; promote inclusivity in the classroom and the school, as well as community.
- 01:11:00 Michelle Bugarin: it humbles you
- 01:12:12 Breanna Camp: Can someone send the conference survey and certificate request link please
